BOOM IN BROKEN BONES

These People Should Have Had Policies.

SOME VERY PAINFUL ACCIDENTS

Bob Houghton Fell and Broke the Bones of His Hand, James Fenton Sustained a Fractured Shoulder, Conductor Jordan Sprained His Arm, and Other People Were Injured.

A number of people in the city were so unfortunate yesterday as to sustain injuries more or less painful.

Bobby Houghton, a well known potter, was attempting to dodge a piece of clay someone had thrown, when he slipped and fell, and in an effort to save himself threw out his hand. His whole weight was thrown on the member, and when he arose it was to find several bones broken, and himself suffering severely. He was taken to a physician and the hurt repaired. It will be some time before he can work.

James Fenton, a resident of the West End, was walking in his back yard when he slipped on some ice, and went down. When Doctor Norris arrived he found that the collar bone was broken, making a severe and painful injury. The unfortunate victim of ice was patched up as well as possible in the circumstances and it will not be long until he is well.

An unknown lady was so unfortunate as to fall on Sixth street, between Market and Jackson, last evening. She happened to step on a slippery place, and fell, striking her head with terrific force against the hard pavement. The contents of a market basket which she carried were thrown around the street, and gathered up by a male companion, who also helped the lady to rise. She seemed dazed, but refused to give her name.

John Faulk sprained his hand painfully while at work in the flour mill yesterday. The hurt is painful, causing him no end of trouble.

Conductor Jordan, the well known commandant of the pony and its crew, wears a broad bandage about one of his arms these days, the cause being an injury which he received several days ago. He is not badly hurt, and will soon be as well as ever.

Robert Boyd, the Market street butcher, met with a bad accident yesterday while cutting ice at the river shore. A heavy block of the frozen substance fell on his leg, breaking that member. He will be laid up for several weeks.

ANOTHER MATCH.

Scheller May Wrestle Morgan of Cincinnati in This City.

Since his match with Allison, Bert Scheller, of McKeesport, has been endeavoring to get a match with some wrestler of note and the prospects are that he will succeed, Morgan, of Cincinnati, being the party in sight. Scheller has been corresponding and today received the following letter from Bucyrus:

DEAR SIR—Have just talked with Morgan. He will wrestle you on even terms at some date in the near future. He has two matches for next week after which he will talk business with you. You can make me your proposition and I will give it to him. Address your letters to him in my care. Yours,

G. A. McNUTT.

Mr. McNutt is sporting editor of the Bucyrus Forum. Morgan has a match with Eddie Ross, of Cleveland, for next Tuesday night in Bucyrus, but who the other match is with Scheller has not the slightest idea. Morgan is not the man who wrestled Allison in Chicago. He weighs 160 pounds, while his opponent, Ross, weighs but 150. Scheller thinks the match can be made for this city soon. He has heard nothing from Allison since he defeated him here, and consequently recognizes no notice of his alleged challenge.

ONLY A SCANDAL.

Yet It Makes Interesting Talk For Gossips.

One of the most sensational scandals that the city has ever known made its appearance on the streets within the last few days, and is even now being rolled around on the tongues of the gossips, who know well how to handle delicate cases of this character because of long experience and careful training.

The principal in the story is a woman who is well known to many persons, her calling list containing the names of some people who would throw up their hands in holy horror if they imagined for an instant that she was walking in anything but the straight and narrow way. The others who figure as prominent, but are left to themselves because they are men, are two youngsters, scarcely out of leading strings, and a man with a family, the members of which have always shown him consideration and a loving disposition. As the stories go, this woman has been in the habit of availing herself of her husband's absence from the city to receive these men, one at a time, in her home, and if the stories told by neighbors bear any truth the orgies there carried on would make racy reading if they ever reach the public ear; yet that is not the worst feature. It is charged that the husband purposely leaves the city in order that his wife may meet these men, and together they live happily upon the money which is generously given out by the infatuated lot. There can be but one ending to the story provided it be true. The whole matter will come out some day; it can not always be concealed from public gaze, and then there will be a sensation that will shake the city. If on the other hand the husband is not interested in the transaction, which is possibly the case, there will be a murder or two for the grand jury to consider, and the county will be at the expense of a long trial.

More than one resident of the city asserts with vigor that the story as given above is made up of facts pure and simple, and while the News Review does not often deal in stories of this sort, it has been earnestly urged to make public this case in order that the interested parties will take warning before it is too late.

MARRIED LAST NIGHT.

Rev. Frank E. Nichols and Miss Gertrude Purinton Made One.

The comfortable residence of Charles Purinton, on Elm street, was last night the scene of a pretty wedding, the principals being Rev. Frank E. Nichols and Miss Gertrude Purinton. The ceremony was performed at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. Huffer assisted by Reverend Slayter, in the presence of 35 near friends of the contracting parties. The attendants were Mr. Al Scott and Miss Onay Johnston and Mr. Reese and Miss Woolcott. The bride wore a gown of blue silk, with roses. Miss Johnston was attired in fawn-colored novelty, and Miss Woolcott was dressed in light grey. A sumptuous repast was served after the ceremony, and the merry party remained until a late hour. The happy young people left this morning for Hiram, where the groom resides, accompanied by the best wishes of a large number of friends. Mrs. Nichols has long been a resident of this city, and there are many to wish her long life and happiness.

Cease This Wrangling.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW—I have watched with no little interest the conflict between the city council and the board of health, and I think the time has come to stop this petty wrangling. There is really no cause for any trouble between the two bodies, and they simply lay bare themselves for criticism when they spat and quarrel like a family of children. This thing has gone so far now that it will cost the city money if they continue, and where is there a taxpayer who wants to pay for what seems to me to be private litigation. It grows monotonous.

A MAN OF PEACE.

The township trustees are mad, that is they do not feel that one can act the part of the Good Samaritan without some imposition being practiced upon them. The trouble arises from the fact that they know of people who have been under their care, and have received provisions from them, finding money to be used in attending plays at the opera house. The imposition was practiced in a way that the trustees know they are right. Those people will eat no more at the township table.

Happily Wedded.

Mr. James Welch and Miss Jennie Farrish, two well known young people of this city, were quietly married at the parsonage of Rev. J. M. Huston at 8 o'clock last night. The affair was a complete surprise to the most intimate friends of the happy couple, especially to the groom's club companions. Mr. and Mrs. Welch will stay for the present at the home of the groom's father, Commissioner Welch, East Market street, but will go to housekeeping on Sixth street about April 1.

Slow Work.

The tow boat Charley Hook is still engaged in cutting a channel in the ice here. The boat started at the foot of Market street yesterday morning and had succeeded in cutting the ice for a distance of about 100 feet this morning. A force of eight men are at work and find their task a difficult one. Meanwhile the wrath of the West Virginia farmer increases.

THEY WANT A NEW JAIL

The Grand Jury Follow the Old Time Custom.

LIQUOR OFFENSES IN SALEM

All the Indictments In This Line Go to the Northern Part of the County—The Zoellars Boys Must Answer Their Charge—Some Minor Offenses.

LISBON, Feb. 15.—The grand jury did not forget to follow the action of their official predecessors this term and submitted the following report to Judge Billingsley:

"In compliance with the order of the court as required by the state, we, the grand jury of the February term today visited the jail of the county in a body, and heartily commend Sheriff Lodge and his family for keeping said jail clean in all departments, and the prisoners therein as comfortable as the surroundings and sanitary conditions will permit. We deem the jail building inadequate to accommodate the growing criminal population of this county, as well as unsafe, unhealthy and altogether a menace to the lives of the sheriff's family as well as the prisoners kept therein. We find that the living rooms of the sheriff are located immediately above a number of dark basement cells, and the effluvia arising from a want of sanitary arrangements is very offensive. We recommend a new jail and sheriff's residence, with all the modern equipments to be constructed as soon as possible and suggest that any measure looking to the expenditure of any money on the old structure is unwise and inexpedient.

"We find among the cases disposed of by us a large number of petty criminal matters which should not be passed upon by this body. We recommend these to the justices and mayors to be disposed of in their own courts."

One notable result of the grand jury is found in the fact that all the liquor indictments are found against Salem men. G. Immoersteg must answer to seven, and upon being arraigned gave bail in the sum of $300 for each. Against John Veinlocher there are four, Fred Becker two, George Schneider four, and Martin Connor one. Addison Duke was indicted for obtaining a horse, wagon and harness under false pretense. It was claimed that he went to Salineville and represented that he owned a grocery store in East Liverpool, and gave a mortgage on some property in Leetonia. When the mortgage was filed the fraud came to the surface. The accused is now in jail. William Carman, of West township, will answer the charge of assault and battery, while T. D. Walters and W. E. Phillips have assault with intent to rob against their names, they being the men who are charged with injuring Postmaster Smith, of East Palestine. William McCue and William Jordan will answer assault and battery, and A. Graham, W. Neiswonger and A. Jennings have burglary and larceny against their names. George Barkhurst, of Liverpool, has larceny to his credit and Rev. Adam Birch, of Columbiana, must stand trial for assault and battery. Allen Huston, of Clarkson, is charged with larceny and B. and C. Zoellars were indicted for assault with intent to rob. W. C. Van Fossen winds up the list with an indictment for appropriating property to his own use.

Found Some Money.

Special to the News Review.

LISBON, Feb. 15.—Sheriff Lodge has for some time been under the impression that all was not well with the Zoellars boys, and this morning he examined their clothes. The result was a find of $14, which was securely sewed in the lining of Baltzer Zoellars' coat.

Ruined the Room.

An oil stove in a room of the residence of J. W. Grant, East End, went on a rampage last night, and caused no end of trouble for the occupants of the house. Some clothes had been placed in the room to dry, and it was developed that these had been destroyed, and the walls covered with a thick coating of soot. The accident will cost the owner of the house in the neighborhood of $25, as the clothes are ruined, and the room must be papered.

Money Made by Begging.

The township trustees are desirous of warning the public to keep an eye on a number of people who make a practice of begging in the city. The authorities have learned that these people work almost all the time, and can make a good living in that way. They look upon this asking for aid from the people as a great imposition, and believe that charity given to those not in need is a bad move. The trustees can find worthy people if you have anything to donate.

HEAD ON COLLISION.

A Wreck on the Street Railway This Morning—Little Damage.

Collisions are scars on the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway than many other lines and the best of it is that serious injuries are seldom received by passengers.

There was a small wreck this morning, and as usual the scene was laid in the vicinity of Wellsville. Motorman Brandenburg's car was coming east and Motorman Donovan was travelling westward when they met on the curve near the trestle. Although neither car was going at high speed it was impossible for the motormen to reverse in time to avoid a collision, so they came together. The fronts or windbreaks on the cars were damaged, the passengers were shaken up somewhat, and the motormen jerked about in a manner not pleasing to them.

One of the cars was so badly damaged that it was hauled to the power house for repairs. The damage was not great to either car.

THOSE WHO HAVE DIED.

Three Old Residents Pass Into the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Hardwick died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Barker, on Seventh street last night, the cause being consumption. She was aged 70 years, and has long been a resident of the city. The funeral will take place Sunday at 2 in the afternoon from the Methodist Protestant church, interment being in River-view.

Mrs. Richard Swaney passed away last night at her home between Third and Fourth streets after a short illness. The funeral will take place on Monday at 9 o'clock from the Catholic church.

Mrs. Daniel Smith, a well known lady living in the country not far from this city, died at 2 o'clock this morning aged 73 years. She leaves four sons and an equal number of daughters. Motorman Smith, of the street railway, and Jesse Smith, of East End, being of the number.

In Squires' Courts.

Kirk & Co., of Chicago, secured judgment for $21.95 against A. C. Bradshaw for a balance due on an account in Squire Manley's court this morning. The defendant did not appear.

Squire Travis rendered a verdict for the defendant in the Hamilton-Marshall case today.

The case of Mrs. Mary Surles versus F. S. Albright was continued indefinitely in Squire Travis' court this morning owing to the illness of Mrs. Surles.

Squire Travis yesterday secured a verdict for $33.15 in the case of his client, Nicholas Wynne versus The Myers Hartford Clay company at Malvern. George Wynne's case against the same firm was not tried.

The New Postmaster.

The familiar face of H. L. Simms was not seen around the postoffice as postmaster today, but in his stead M. E. Miskall presided over this branch of Uncle Sam's business. Mr. Miskall became the postmaster today, his commission having arrived some time ago, but, acting on the advice of the department authorities, it was thought best to have the transfer made at the first or fifteenth of the month, in order to save any trouble in the accounts. Mr. Simms has not yet decided what business he will enter.

Pleased the Audience.

The presentation of the "Black Crook" brought a large audience to the Grand last night, standing room being at a premium in the gallery. The company was complete, and gave a performance which met with approval. Perhaps the only incident which met with frowns was the continued whistling and boisterous conduct of a party of boys, who imagined the performance did not begin on time.

An Enjoyable Event.

The ladies of the Mystic Circle gave a very pleasant social in Rechabite hall last night, and the male branch of the order was largely represented. A banquet was among the enjoyments of the evening, and as entertainers the ladies were pronounced the best.

Sold Liquor on Sunday.

Mrs. Doss Huffman appeared in the mayor's court today and pleaded guilty to selling liquor on Sunday, Feb. 3. Acting Mayor Manley fined her $29.60.

CONKLE'S BODY FOUND

The Leetonia Murder Mystery is Clearing.

TWO MEN ARE NOW IN JAIL

Marshal Daley Has Been Working on the Case and Found the Corpses in a Coal House Yesterday—Prosecutor Speaker is Hunting Evidence Against the Prisoners.

LISBON, Feb. 15.—[Special.]—The mystery which has surrounded the death of J. S. Conkle, the Canton monument man, was cleared up yesterday, and two men are now in the county jail charged with being his murderers.

It will be remembered that Conkle came to Leetonia, and after fixing a monument in the cemetery disappeared, and could not be found. There was a great deal of talk at that time, and the authorities were soundly berated for what the people said was negligence. Marshal Ed Daley, of Leetonia, was interested in the case, and Sheriff Lodge made an attempt to locate the murderers. They failed, however, or they seemed to fail, and the public had almost forgotten the incident. Meanwhile suspicion rested on a man, Ben Witzelman, and the marshal was threatened with a suit for damages if he insisted on expressing the belief that he was the guilty party. Yesterday the marshal, who has at no time been idle, secured a number of assistants, and going to an old coal house in Franklin Square, about a mile from Leetonia, found the body of the missing man. There seemed to be no doubt that it was Conkle, although the body was decomposed and almost beyond recognition. The marshal and his assistants believed that it was Conkle, and taking the body to Leetonia decided to arrest Witzelman and a fellow named John Moegging, better known in that community as Dutch Joe. The arrests caused a sensation in Leetonia, but the marshal locked up the prisoners, and this morning took them to Lisbon where they were safely lodged in the county jail.

Prosecutor Speaker and Sheriff Lodge believe that they have a good case against the accused men, and the prosecutor, accompanied by a News Review correspondent, went to Leetonia this afternoon for the purpose of hunting more evidence and getting the case in condition for trial. An attorney who is interested in the defense was called to Leetonia this morning, and so urgent was the demand for him that he did not stop to take the train, but hastened to his destination in a buggy. While the details of the arrests are being kept as quiet as possible it is thought that Marshal Daley has accumulated a great deal of evidence, and as he is known as a careful man with conservative ideas it is thought that he would think twice before making an arrest.

Trouble for the Carriers.

The mail carriers experienced no end of trouble yesterday because people insisted on mailing valentines with a one cent stamp. The regulation calls for a two cent stamp when the envelope is sealed, but this was not generally known, and all the carriers were compelled to make change at many places. Before the day was over this had become a pronounced nuisance, and caused bitter complaint.

The Roads Are Clear.

Persons coming from the country say that the roads leading to town are clear of snow drifts, and driving is not the trial it was a few days ago. For a time many roads were impassable, but the farmers cleared away the drifts, and constant driving through them brought them down, so that now they can be passed without danger of upsetting.

Was Not Married.

George "Toadix" Carey, the base ballist, was placed in an embarrassing position by the blunder of a downtown sheet last night in stating that he was married to a Kittanning lady. There was no truth whatever in the statement, which some one evidently imagined would look funny in type.

Irwin Testifies.

Irwin, the "blind pool" man, whose trial in Pittsburgh is exciting all the residents of that city, testified yesterday as to his former connection with the glass house here. He touched briefly upon this part of his business career, although it was one of which he should be ashamed.

A New Boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Bulger, Sixth street, a son.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Friday, Feb. 15.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

As the present congress nears its end the utter uselessness of its existence is more plainly seen.

HOKE SMITH continues to wield his axe, and not a day goes by without the head of some unfortunate soldier dropping into the basket.

If the Democratic congress had not dealt so treacherously with crockery, the potteries of the country would not now be wondering what their spring trade will be.

THERE is no reason why George Pullman should not be made to appear in court along with other American citizens. If wealth can influence justice the goddess should remove her bandage.

THE administration of Grover Cleveland to the present time has been little less than a farce, with no redeeming feature except what little good Republicans have been able to accomplish.

THE most unpopular individual in this country at present is a once respected citizen named Groundhog, who deliberately walked out the other day and brought down calamity upon this entire section by glancing at his shadow.

BUSINESS is reviving all over the country, but on a Democratic basis. Cotton goods are cheap, but the workers of New England are making almost nothing. Crockery is cheap, but the potters of East Liverpool are not hoarding wealth as a result of their daily toil.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

The next governor of Ohio made a speech at the Lincoln banquet in Cincinnati the other night, yet there are men who can not name him from among the eight applicants who sat at the sumptuous tables. Every man asking the honor is a representative Republican, and the whole form a body which would attract attention in any part of the land for their brainy conception of Republican doctrine. One of these men is destined to be the next governor, and it remains for the delegates at the next convention to decide upon the man. Until then the campaign will be warm, nay it may be bitter, but it can not get so bitter that the defeated ones will refuse to support the lucky man. And let all Republicans take the example set by the leaders, and give the winner a majority that will cause Democracy to remember Ohio as nothing more than a Republican state, filled with loyal people loving protection and its cause.

INDEPENDENT K. OF L.

The Constitution of the New Order Completed.

MORE LATITUDE FOR ASSEMBLIES.

Authority of the Executive Board to Expel Members and Assemblies Without Trial Abrogated—The New Officers—Mineworkers' Officials Cleared of Charges.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 15.—The committee preparing the constitution for the Independent Order of Knights of Labor has completed its work. A large part of the old constitution is eliminated so as give local and district assemblies more latitude in the management of their own affairs. The authority of the general executive board to expel members and assemblies without the formality of a trial is abrogated. The committee on credentials will be appointed by the general assembly instead of the master workman. A new basis of representation in the general assembly is adopted similar to that of the United Mineworkers, one delegate for every 100 members or majority fraction thereof. Various districts are to have full power to manage their own affairs without interference from general officers. A general assembly will be called not later than Jan. 1, 1896.

The new officers are: General master workman, William B. Wilson, Blossburg, Pa.; general worthy foreman, James L. Michaels, Pittsburgh; general secretary-treasurer, Charles R. Martin, Tiffin, O.; general executive board—A. W. Simpson, Chicago; William E. Taaffe, Albany; J. H. Barrett, Leadville, Colo., and E. J. Lynch of Meridan, Conn.

The new organization, it is claimed, starts out with a membership of about 20,000, embracing the glassworkers, the brassworkers and the miners' organizations.

The following scale committees were appointed by the United Mineworkers' convention:

Machine mining—Fred Dilcher and N. Purcell, Ohio; W. H. Larkins and Cameron Miller, Pennsylvania; J. Gallagher, Indiana.

The charges against the national officers brought by President Adams of the Ohio Mineworkers were declared not proven.

Mark Wild, district organizer of the American Railway union, under Mr. Debs, being granted the floor, stated that last summer when the A. R. U. were trying to stop the running of trains on the Hocking Valley road, John McBride, at that time president of the United Mineworkers, gave him $100 to induce a settlement of the strike of the railroad men on that road.

Mr. McBride gave Wild the money as a charitable donation from some of the coal operators, the strike on the road having been previously overcome by the railroad company. Mr. McBride said: "None of the money came from the railroad company."

A committee was appointed by the convention to investigate and report upon the subject in controversy between Wild and McBride.

THE BLUE AND GRAY.

Old Soldiers of North and South Banquet Together.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—The "Blue and the Gray" mingled at the auditorium given by Columbia post, Grand Army of the Republic. About 300 men sat down to the table. The banquet was opened by Rev. Emil G. Hirsch in prayer. Commander H. G. Purington of Columbia post introduced the speakers and Commander C. H. McConnell acted as toastmaster.

The list of toasts included: "1861-1865," Major William Warner of Kansas City, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; "The Stars in Their Courses," General John C. Black; "The Duties of Peace," St. Clair McKelway of Brooklyn; "A New Nation," William E. Mason of Chicago; "The New Century," General John B. Gordon of Georgia. The members of the ex-Confederate association of Chicago were invited as guests of the Columbia post.

Pupils Cruelly Beaten.

DENVER, Feb. 15.—On complaint of the 15-year-old son of Frank P. Arbuckle, receiver of the general land office, and Floyd Goshen, aged 14 years, son of a prominent citizen of Colorado Springs, Rev. Frank Spaulding, principal of the Jarvis Hall Military academy, and Professors Bylesby, Stone, Burrell, Sayer and Clarke, were arrested on the charge of assault. For some act of insubordination the two cadets, Arbuckle and Goshen, were, as is customary in such cases, ordered to walk a beat all day. They refused, and for this Rev. Mr. Spaulding, it is alleged, after taking off their coats, lashed them with a knotted rope until they fell down unconscious. The other members of the faculty holding them.

H. R. H.'s Side Won.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A hockey match has been played by a distinguished party on the ice on a lake in Buckingham palace gardens. One side was captained by the Prince of Wales and the other by Mr. Francis Mildmay, member of parliament. The Prince of Wales' team eventually won by a score of 8 to 5. Among the spectators were the Princess of Wales and the Duchess of York. Throughout the contest the mercury stood at 4 degrees below zero.

Couldn't Face His Creditors.

GRINNELL, Ia., Feb. 15.—J. C. Vigneaux, agent for the Northwestern Life Insurance company of Milwaukee, who left town Saturday, has sent back a letter saying that he could not meet his obligations nor face his creditors. It is said that several recently paid premiums have not been turned over to the company. He leaves a large number of unpaid accounts.

THE DOCUMENT INVALID.

A Long-Contested Will Case Ends In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 15.—Just before W. S. Jones, president of the Citizens' Savings and Loan association, died last summer, he called for his will and tore his signature off the end of it. The spoiled will provided heavy legacies to Lake Side hospital, the Children's Aid society, Orville S. Jones, a brother, and Mrs. Mary H. Campbell, to whom the deceased, who was an aged man, had been engaged to be married. An effort was made to probate the spoiled will and the case was fought long and bitterly in court.

Probate Judge White has decided that the document is invalid and the $200,000 fortune will be divided among the relatives according to law.

The Brickmakers' Convention.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 15.—At the convention of the National Brickmakers' association by J. A. Buckstaff of Lincoln, Neb., read a paper relating his experience in the manufacture and laying of paving brick. A general discussion upon the subject of "Can paving brick be toughened by the annealing process?" was led by Captain W. S. Williams of Canton, and was participated in by several speakers, who said that it could. Another discussion upon the subject of "Elements of good paving brick," was led by Commodore W. J. Konitz of Allegheny, Pa., and E. V. Purington of Chicago, who illustrated their remarks with sample bricks. Tomorrow will be spent by the visitors in going to brickyards and to the various points of interest about the city, escorted by the local entertainment committee.

Jailed on a Forgery Charge.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Feb. 15.—S. H. Thompson, a son of a retired clergyman of Urbana, O., was followed from Huntsville to Jackson Center and arrested and lodged in jail here, charged with forgery. He is accused of having passed a check on Clem Bimmel of Huntsville for $25, and another on Jesse Short of the same place for $29. The names signed were H. H. Ashmead and Duncan Dow of this place. The man had a young woman with him at a hotel when caught. Mr. W. R. Sage, a grocer of this city, has also identified Thompson as the man who passed a forged check on him a few days ago.

Bomb Thrown in a Factory.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Feb. 15.—An unknown miscreant threw a bomb into the office of the Buckeye glassworks in this city, which exploded and almost totally destroyed the office. Manager Humphreys of the factory had a narrow escape from death and was badly cut and bruised. There has been a strike at the works and the factory has been operated non-union. Several riots and assaults have occurred. Over 30 non-unionists were asleep in the factory when the explosion occurred and the men were panic stricken. The loss will be about $10,000.

Peaches Seem Doomed.

BUENA VISTA, O., Feb. 15.—Old fruit growers here say that the peach crop will be a total failure, the buds being all killed. The warm late fall and the heavy frost have done the work. Small fruits are not badly injured, and the apple buds, being yet in the wood, are safe. The snow this winter is favorable for wheat, which is in good condition, and a full harvest is expected.

A Great Place for Babies.

TOLEDO, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Edward Stevens of this city has given birth to triplets. The children weigh 3-1/2 pounds each and are all doing nicely. Directly opposite the Stevens house twins were born last week, and two weeks ago triplets were born to a couple on the street just in the rear. In the case of Mrs. Stevens, no physician was called nor has any physician seen them.

Incorporated In Ohio.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 15.—The following articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state: Pencil Avenue Savings Bank company, Lorain, capital stock $50,000; Queen City Co-operative Grocery company, Cincinnati, capital stock $3,000; Blymyer Building company, Cincinnati, capital stock $250,000.

Another Match For Lavack.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 15.—John Lavack, the champion featherweight of Ohio, and John Whittaker of Kansas City, have signed articles of agreement for a ten-round match before the Imperial Athletic club of this city, on Feb. 28. The purse will be $500.

Discharged the Murder Suspects.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 15.—The three suspects, Wick Lowery, Sherman Case and James Beall, who have been for several days undergoing examination on the charge of having murdered James Jamieson, have been discharged by the police judge.

Died In Awful Agony.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 15.—John, the 2-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Kave of Pichin, a few miles out of town, drank concentrated lye which was left within his reach and died in awful agony before a physician could arrive.

French and Siamese Fighting Again.

BANGKOK, Siam, Feb. 15.—Difficulties have arisen between the Siamese and the French on the left bank of the Mekong river, near Kamnann, and serious disturbances have occurred. At one place there was a conflict between a number of Siamese people and a detachment of French troops, during which a French officer was severely wounded.

California Wine Prices Advanced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—The Association of California Winegrowers, now controlling the market for California vintage, recently sold 1,000,000 gallons of new wines at 12 1/2 cents and has since advanced the price to 15 cents, at which rate it has several orders for large quantities.

MINISTER GRAY DEAD.

He Expires of Pneumonia In the City of Mexico.

BECAME SICK ON THE TRAIN.

The Minister Was Returning to His Duties When He Received His Death Attack. Was Unconscious From the Time of His Arrival—His Career.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 15.—United States Minister Gray is dead. He had just arrived by the Mexican National railway with a severe case of pneumonia. The Pullman car conductor found him unconscious in the car. He was carried from the train on a stretcher to the American hospital. He was unconscious from the time of his arrival and recognized no one. He had been sick all the way down from St. Louis.

Isaac Pussey Gray was born in Chester county, Pa., Oct. 18, 1828. He was the son of John Hanna Gray. His ancestors all belonged to the Society of Friends, his greatgrandfather having emigrated from England with William Penn and settled in Chester county. His parents moved from Pennsylvania to Urbana, O., in 1836, thence to Montgomery county in 1839, thence to New Madison, Darke county, in 1842. There he died.

Isaac Gray received a common school education and being ambitious and of studious habits, he early entered upon the study of law. His poverty, however, compelled him to accept a clerkship in a mercantile house at New Madison. Here his close application and strict integrity soon raised him to a partnership in the business, and in a few years he became sole proprietor in the establishment. In 1855 he removed his family to Union City, Ind., where he resided for many years, and where, after successfully continuing the mercantile business for a few years, he entered upon the practice of law. Mr. Gray was colonel of the Fourth Indiana cavalry in the Civil war, where he made a good record and remained until discharged on account of ill-health. Returning home he regained his wasted energies, and reentered the One Hundred and Fortieth Indiana infantry. In 1866 he was selected as the candidate for congress against the Hon. George W. Julian, who had long represented that district in the house of representatives. After a close contest he was defeated by about 300 votes. Two years later he was elected to the state senate where he remained four years. In July, 1870, he was tendered the consulate at St. Thomas, West Indies, but Mr. Gray declined the honor.

As a young man he was a member of the Whig party, but acted with the Republicans during the war. Since 1871 he has been an active member of the Democratic party, serving as a member of the Indiana delegation to the Liberal Republican convention in 1872. He was nominated by acclamation on the Democratic ticket for lieutenant governor, was elected to that honorable position in 1876 and was renominated for the same place in 1880 by the state convention. In 1884 Mr. Gray was elected governor of Indiana on the Democratic ticket, and served his full term. After retiring from that office he followed the practice of his profession in this city in partnership with his son, Pierre Gray, until he was called to the Mexican mission by President Cleveland, about two years ago. In 1850 he married Miss Eliza Jaqua of Darke county, O. They have two children living—Pierre, who is a lawyer in this city, and Bayard, who has been acting as his father's private secretary in Mexico. Mr. Gray wielded a large influence in the politics of Indiana, had an excellent judgment of men and things, was well balanced by knowledge and experience, and had a handsome personal appearance and courteous address.

Evident Murder For Insurance.

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—Harry Place Hyams and Dalia's Theodore Hyams, the twins who were held for the murder of William C. Wells on Jan. 16, 1893, have a record which makes the case remarkable. In 1892 Harry Hyams was engaged to Martha Wells. A brother of the girl was insured for $38,000 by Hyams, payable to the sister. Later Wells was killed. About ten days ago an attempt was made to insure Mrs. Hyams for $200,000. This aroused her suspicions and caused the arrests.

Stands by the Corporation.

ALBANY, Feb. 15.—Attorney General Hancock has handed down a decision denying the application for permission to bring action to vacate the charter of the Brooklyn Heights Railroad company, for failing to operate its lines according to the provisions of its charter. The attorney general holds that if the ten-hour labor law has been violated, it was by the officers of the company and not by the corporation itself.

Big and Crew Probably Lost.

BOSTON, Feb. 15.—The description of wreckage ashore at Matinus, Me., from some vessel wrecked off Ragged island, leads to the belief here that the wreck is that of the brig Morning Light. She carried a crew of five men beside the captain, all of whom are thought to have been lost.

THE HAYWARD TRIAL.

Harry's Attorneys Trying to Establish an Alibi.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 15.—The alibi theory has been begun by the defense in the Hayward case, and 40 minutes were spent in questioning the usher at the Grand Opera House over a point which the state will admit—that Harry was at the theater with Miss Bartleson the night of the murder.

Ole Theorson said he lived at the house where Blixt said he called the night of the murder, and stated that there was a light burning there all night and no one called or knocked that night. George Hitchcock, who took Blixt's statements, was examined in an attempt to impeach Blixt in cases where he stated that he did not make statements credited to him in the shorthand report. The defense expects to show the several contradictions pointed out in his cross-examination by Mr. Erwin.

Women's Crusade Against Saloons.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Feb. 15.—The temperance crusade of the W. C. T. U. has created a sensation in Sioux City. About 200 women marched from saloon to saloon singing hymns and reading to barkeepers the section of the Martin liquor law, which they have been violating. At John Manderscheid's place the ladies received a "hot" reception. Manderscheid called them all sorts of names and commenced pushing them toward the door. In the rush to escape a number of women were hurt. The women say they will continue the crusade.

Two Cartloads of Human Heads.

TANGIER, Morocco, Feb. 15.—A detachment of Moorish cavalry has arrived at the town of Casa Blanca, a seaport of Morocco, on its way to Fez, with some ghastly trophies of war for the sultan. These consist of two cartloads of human heads, which had been obtained during a recent punitive expedition against the Rahamma rebels. They have been salted in order to preserve them and will be presented to the sultan in that condition. They will afterwards be exhibited on the walls of Fez.

Beat the Poor Department.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 15.—The poor department of this city gives out every Saturday a number of work tickets to poor men with families dependent upon them, the tickets entitling them to one week's work. A man receiving a work ticket has no right to further aid for eight weeks. It has been discovered that a gang of men who are not entitled to this form of relief have been obtaining it week after week this winter by giving fictitious names and addresses.

A $1,500 Stamp Collection Stolen.

PROVIDENCE, Feb. 15.—City Councilman George H. Wood, a well-known stamp collector, has been robbed of a $1,500 collection of domestic and foreign stamps by a clever swindler. Wood attended a meeting of the Philatelic society. During his absence an unknown man called at his house and secured his stamp collection, representing that Wood wanted them sent to the stamp collectors' meeting. The collection is one of the best in Rhode Island.

David Paige Coming Back.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—It is reported that Contractor David Paige, who left the United States a few years ago to escape the consequences of having forged John Huntington's name for over $900,000, and who is now in South America, intends to return home. Paige's friends have taken up nearly all the forged paper, leaving only about $35,000, which is held by several banks.

A Prominent Englishman Dead.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Sir James Thompson, Stewart Richardson, secretary of the Order of the Thistle, is dead. He was born Dec. 24, 1840, and married Oct. 20, 1868, Harriet Georgina Alice, daughter of the late Rupert John Colclough of Halifax, Nova Scotia, who survives him. He leaves three sons and five daughters.

Can't Bring Murderers to Trial.

LECAM, Neb., Feb. 15.—Three men met death in the past few days on the strip of land added to this county by accretion of the Missouri river, and the murderers cannot be punished, since neither Nebraska or Iowa claims jurisdiction over the disputed territory.

Ferdinand Hasn't Been Expelled.

BUCHAREST, Roumania, Feb. 15.—It is semi-officially stated here that there is no truth in the rumor which was circulated in Berlin that Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria has been expelled from that country and had fled to Roumania.

REFUSED AID AGAIN.

The Treasury Fails to Get Aid a Third Time.

WESTERN REPUBLICANS TO BLAME

Dr. Reed and the Eastern Republicans Try Hard to Rally Them to the Support of the Administration, but Failed—An Analysis of the Vote.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The third attempt to secure legislation looking to the relief of the treasury has failed in the house. First, the Carlisle bill for the reform of the currency system went down; next, the bill for the issue of $50,000,000 of gold bonds, and the retirement of the legal tenders recommended in the president's special message, was defeated by a majority of 27, and now the house, by a majority even larger, 37, has refused to order to a third reading the resolution by which it was proposed to authorize the issue of $50,000,000 of 3 per cent gold bonds to substitute for the 4 per cent 30-year coin bonds, sold by Secretary Carlisle under the contract with the Rothschild-Morgan syndicate. The action of the house was the culmination of the exciting events which have occurred since the present sent his special message to congress, which result in the report from the ways and means committee of the resolution to authorize the issue of the gold bonds.

The debate upon the resolution, which lasted over five hours, was of an interesting and at times inflammable character. The galleries were packed, and there was much confusion on the floor, but the interest centered in the course which the Republicans would pursue, it being conceded that the fate of the resolution rested with them. There was much maneuvering among their leaders. The Republicans west of the Allegheny, led by Messrs. Hopkins and Cannon (Ill.), started off with impetuous speeches against a gold bond that would discriminate against bonds already issued. Mr. Reed and his eastern friends sought in private conference to rally all to a united action. His plan was to allow the resolution to go to a third reading, and then move to recommitt it with instructions to report back a bill similar to that which he offered as a substitute for the gold bond bill last week, providing for 3 per cent coin bonds. For a time it seemed possible that this arrangement would be agreed to, but after the stirring speech of Mr. Hepburn (Ia.) the middle and western Republicans broke away, determined to defeat the resolution, lest by some chance it might carry if it passed this preliminary stage. The eastern Republicans then decided to support it. The speeches of Mr. Wilson, Mr. Reed, Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Bryan were the features of the debate.

Analysis of the vote shows that 89 Democrats and 31 Republicans, 120 in all, voted in favor of the resolution, and 88 Democrats, 62 Republicans and 7 Populists, 157 in all, against.

THE SENATE SESSION.

No Changes to Be Made in the Railway Mail System.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The senate voted to make no changes in the present railway mail system. The subject has been the chief point of contention of contention of the postoffice appropriation bill. The bill, as reported, gave to the postmaster general complete discretion in expending $3,200,000 for postal cars and cut off the present fast mail line from north to south.

Proposed changes created a lively discussion, lasting several days, as they embraced a complete revolution in the present system. All of the amendments were defeated, however, by decisive votes. By similar votes, the senate sustained the present fast mail line from New England to the south. After a sharp debate, the senate declined to extend the policy for subsidizing fast mail lines. The postoffice appropriation bill was not passed up to the time of adjournment. During the day the senate received the lengthy letter of Secretary Carlisle, conveying the information as to the condition of the treasury, in response to a senate resolution.

Mr. Sherman's proposition for a $150,000 subsidy for a fast mail service through Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Louisiana, connecting all principal points, and similar to the Atlantic Coast line service, connecting north and south, was defeated—23 to 32.

ANNA GOULD'S COUNT.

She Will Marry the Titled Frenchman in March.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gould, Miss Anna Gould and Count de Castellane lunched together at the Waldorf, the Gould family having now returned to town. The wedding of Miss Anna Gould and Count de Castellane will be celebrated during the latter part of March.

This is later than was originally intended and is owing to the fact that the Marquis and Marquise de Castellane, parents of the prospective bridegroom, have now determined to cross the ocean for their son's nuptials. His brother is also to come over to assist as best man.

Miss Gould is the younger daughter of Jay Gould and is about 21 years of age. Her prospective husband, upon whom, it is said, she will settle $2,000,000 at the time of their marriage, is but six years her senior. The count is closely related to half the great houses of Europe, and his estates are the Chateaux de Rochecotte and Langens on the banks of the Loire. He is handsome, athletic, accomplished and amiable and is one of the best dressed men in New York, where he had been visiting for some time.

CZAR BEING THREATENED.

His Subjects Mad Over His Determination to Uphold Autocracy.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—The Lokalanzeiger of this city asserts that since the delivery by the czar of his recent speech in which he declared that he would uphold autocracy, his majesty has been the daily recipient of letters and manifestos from nihilists, threatening him with death.

It is even rumored that one of the officials of the czar's palace has been arrested upon a charge of placing seditious pictures in the czar's study during the night. One of these pictures represented the assassination of Alexander II, the grandfather of the czar. Another of the pictures represented a similar assassination, but in it the present czar figured instead of his grandfather. Such pictures are said to have been spread broadcast throughout Russia.

Detroit's Health Department War.

DETROIT, Feb. 15.—Mayor Pingree and Dr. McLeod, city health commissioner, went to Lansing to lobby against the bill to transfer the appointment of the Detroit health board officers from the mayor to the governor. Dr. John P. Corcoran was acting health officer in the absence of Dr. McLeod. As a result of Dr. Corcoran's activities for the day five cases, which had been reported as chickenpox by Dr. McLeod, although diagnosed as smallpox by others, were declared by Dr. Corcoran to be smallpox and were quarantined accordingly. When Dr. McLeod learned of this action he wired Dr. Corcoran from Lansing to raise the quarantine and suspend action, but Corcoran declined to do it.

Mexico and Guatemala Compromise.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 15.—Mexico's conditions have been peacefully accepted by Guatemala, the latter guaranteeing their fulfillment. The conditions will be published officially next week. Both sides have made concessions. The Guatemalan question is at last amicably settled upon an equitable basis between the two republics.

Barely Escaped With Their Lives.

BEVER, Mo., Feb. 15.—The Black Diamond mine, employing over 100 miners, has been flooded by a break from the workings of an old slope which was full of water. The miners barely escaped with their lives, leaving behind all their tools, clothing, etc. The damage is not yet known, but it will be heavy.

A Successor to Sheehan.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Mayor Strong has appointed Avery D. Andrews a police commissioner to succeed James C. Sheehan. He is a son-in-law of General Howard. He is a West Pointer, not yet 31 years old and was stationed on Governor's Island.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boyce, Sixth street, a son.

The Elks are arranging for a social session to be held Wednesday evening of next week.

Mrs. Neison Cornell is confined to her home on Eighth street, seriously ill with an attack of grip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hunter, respected residents of Atwood, Carroll county, will soon move to this city, where they will reside.

The funeral of the little daughter of Edward Geisz took place from the home on the Calcutta road this afternoon. Interment was in Riverview.

The ladies' missionary society of the Methodist Protestant church held an interesting and profitable free will social in the church last evening.

George Carey, who has been in correspondence with the management of the Baltimore base ball club, expects to hear from them today or tomorrow.

Reverend Whitehead is in Steubenville conducting evangelistic services for Reverend Coburn, of that city, who is too ill at present to occupy his pulpit.

A sleighing party to the home of Joseph Laughlin, near Calcutta, spent a few hours enjoyably last night. Another party will go to Calcutta tonight.

The obstruction of streets in various parts of the city is causing no end of complaint from people who fall over coal piles, stacks of bricks and store boxes.

A number of sleighing parties left the city last night for country homes north of the city. It was a cold night, but not so cold as to make sleighing unbearable.

Chris Bowman, the Elkton candidate for commissioner, was in town yesterday calling on his friends and looking after the fences he is building in this part of the county. His friends are firm in the belief that he will win over the other candidates.

Interest in the meetings at the Christian church is growing, and many people have been added to the church. Last night the congregation was the largest ever in the church. Tonight Reverend Slayter will preach on a "Battle Between Kings." Services will be conducted in the Grand Opera House Sunday evening.

The steamer Andes, which caused such a row in this city and became so notorious because of its Sunday excursions two years ago, is in Pittsburgh, where it has been for six months. A party of St. Louis capitalists are endeavoring to buy the old hulk, and if they succeed she will be placed in the excursion business on the lower river.

Some people are wondering if the city will ever compel the repairing of pavements, particularly the old board walks on the hill streets. The Calcutta road grows worse every week, yet few people have made repairs. They should bear kindly with the authorities for awhile, as the weather has been far too cold to repair board walks. The bad walks are a nuisance for which there is no excuse.

A company of Pittsburgh men have purchased the Belle of Memphis, and will bring the boat north as soon as the ice gets out of the river. The scheme is to run an excursion boat between points on the upper Ohio and New Orleans, making the trip about once a month. The company intend giving entertainments on the boat, and will provide all sorts of amusements for the passengers. The price paid for the Belle is believed to be $16,000.

There was trouble in the city yesterday afternoon because the telephone line between this point and Lisbon was held by some individual who wanted to talk with Pittsburgh, and was using the wire which runs through this place. The Lisbon people protested that they could not remedy the defect, as this was the regular line to Pittsburgh from that place. Surely this is not the excellent service promised by the officials of the company.

"If all the important towns on the river would combine in one great move toward having the Ohio slack-watered I believe the cry would be heard by congress," said an enterprising citizen last night. "Here we are talking about it for years, yet we talk alone. We have never made a concentrated move, and half the congressmen have no idea how many there are of us, and what an important manufacturing point the Ohio valley has developed. Let us move in unison."

Trade is dull at some of the potteries, yet there is a feeling about the city that orders will be coming in before many weeks go by. Some manufacturers assert that it is too early to tell how trade is going to be, and others are of the opinion that there must be sold even though the dealers are only buying for immediate consumption. The hard luck stories sent out from the city are unwarranted, as there is a general belief that trade will at least be good enough to keep the plants in operation.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—O. M. Kennedy, of Beaver, was a city visitor today.

—J. B. Kelswetter, of Toledo, is in the city on business.

—Sam C. Britton, of Cleveland, was here on business today.

—J. W. Geon and sister went to Pittsburg this morning.

—Mrs. M. S. Warner returned to Canton yesterday after a visit with her son, J. R. Warner.

—Miss Lida McClelland, of Iowa, has returned from this city to Scroggsfield, Carroll county, where she is visiting at the home of J. L. Kean.

Change in Business.

Mr. Sam B. Larkins, the genial salesman for the past eight years, has been admitted into the old shoe firm of J. R. Warner, and business will be carried on under the firm name of J. R. Warner & Co. They want to be known as the "ceaseless toilers for trade," expecting to push forward harder than ever to increase their sales. Their spring goods are daily arriving. The styles are beautiful and as to quality and prices they can't be beat.

Some of the Sick.

Mrs. Will Vodrey is confined to her home on Robinson street, threatened with an attack of quinsy.

Miss Mollie Hazlett, Fifth street, is lying very ill in St. Louis, at the home of her brother.

Thomas Arbuckle is improving somewhat, although he has been very ill.

Another Candidate.

Candidates for county offices are growing in number. Salem has an aspirant for the position of sheriff, although he has not yet paid East Liverpool a visit. A farmer from near Calcutta stated today that St. Clair township would furnish still another candidate for sheriff.

MacKenzie's Photos.

Beautiful cabinet photos—only $3 per dozen, at MacKenzie's studio, First National Bank building. No walking up great flights of stairs. Take the elevator and step into the studio. Pictures delivered promptly, as per promise.

Not Frozen.

Railroad men say that the story concerning water plugs along the line being frozen up is all nonsense. They are the first things attended to when a cold snap comes on.

Will Give Away a Set.

The person holding the lucky number will be given a toilet set at Red Men's hall tonight, the proceeds to go to Samuel Howethorn, who has been very ill for some time.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, At a special meeting of Osceola council, No. 8, D. of P. I. O. R. M., convened in their council room to take action on the death of our respected brother, Henry A. Webber, who departed this life Jan. 25, 1895, aged 32 years, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions of condolence of the sympathy entertained by the members of the council for the bereaved family, and do thus publicly express their sense of the moral worth of the deceased brother; therefore, be it

Resolved, That whereas it has pleased the Great Spirit, the disposer of all human events, to remove by death our beloved brother, Henry A. Webber, from our midst be it

Resolved, That in our deceased brother we recognize and deeply mourn the loss of a good friend and loving brother, one who was at all times ready to assist the worthy in distress; his demise coming at a time when the prospects for the future were so bright is a matter of universal regret and profound sorrow to all who knew him; and to his parents, brothers and sisters, to whom this painful loss is distressing, we offer our heartfelt sympathy, that in this severe trial they may look to One who has promised to comfort the desolate and give them strength under their great affliction, sustain them in their despondent moments, and endue their hearts with resignation that they may be able to say, "Not my will, but Thine, oh, Great Spirit."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes, and also a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

Ask for this, and refuse to take any imitation if you expect satisfaction. If your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you sample. Collars 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. State size, and whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

Crush at a Reception.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The army and navy reception, the third of the season at the white house, took place last night. The crowd was the greatest for years and strongly emphasized the inadequacy of the building for such purposes. People stood in line for over an hour before they could reach the dressingroom. Several ladies had their dresses nearly torn off and many more were badly crushed. There were comparatively few diplomats present, but both congress and the army and navy were well represented.

Will Redeem Light Coins.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The secretary of the treasury has given instructions that United States gold coin now below the limit of tolerance in weight may be received at the sub-treasuries at its face value. Only foreign coins and bars will be received at the New York office, where its value will be ascertained.

Excursion to Pittsburg.

Friday, February 22, excursion tickets to Pittsburg will be sold by the Pennsylvania company, from Bellaire, Canton, Warren, Jamestown and intermediate ticket stations; and by the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway company from Washington, Wheeling, Dennison, Cadiz, New Cumberland and intermediate ticket stations, at one fare for the round trip, account Washington's Birthday celebration. The Junior American Mechanics, Knights of Pythias and other patriotic societies will give a parade in honor of Washington. Return coupons of all excursion tickets valid until Saturday, February 23, inclusive.

Low Rates to Newark.

Feb. 21 and 22, excursion tickets will be sold to Newark at low round trip rates from ticket stations on Pennsylvania lines in Ohio, account Young Men's Christian association convention. Return coupon valid until Feb. 25, inclusive.

SILKS.
JOHN D. CUTTER
SILKS.

Have You Heard of Them?
Are You Interested in the Best Silks on Earth?

What do you think of Black Satin Duchesse that we guarantee to wash and iron like a piece of white muslin? What do you think of Black Poie de Soies that we guarantee never to crack or wear shiney? What do you think of Checks and Plaids that you can put into water and wash like a piece of gingham? What do you think of a line of Black and Colored Silks that we can guarantee in every particular to be better than any silk you ever bought, and at the same time lower in price? Such Silks are only made by John D. Cutter, of New York, and these are the Silks we propose to offer to the people in our Silk sale.

Owing to the rush of orders ahead of ours, it will be impossible for us to announce the positive date of this sale before the latter part of this week, but if you are in the market for Silks it will pay you to wait on this sale.
